Horse Sport Maryland's mission is to cultivate the highest standards of animal welfare and professional conduct in sport, to promote sport horses bred in Maryland, and to maintain the Maryland Sport Horse registry.

The Horse Sport MD Bred to Event Classic is dedicated to the breeding of event-bred horses. This Classic is an opportunity for breeders and owners to showcase their decision-making and horsemanship with the young horses they show.

The Bred to Event Classic includes 3 qualifier events plus a Championship for yearlings through 5-year-olds. Seasoned judges - Robin Walker, Chris Ryan, Susan Graham-White, Stephen Bradley, Phyllis Dawson, Cindy Anderson-Blank, Kim Severson, and Peter Gray - are among the supporters of this special event.

The Championship includes awards for Maryland Bred horses, Thoroughbred horses, and US bred horses. Prize money will be split between Breeders, Owners, and Riders.

The Highlands at Loch Moy Farm spans 260 acres provides the perfect setting and facilities for equestrian competitions.

Make It Right Photography will be on site for photography coverage.
